Architecture and Gender: Project I (15 ECTS, AD240V)

Examiner and course teacher: Katja Grillner, grillner@kth.se

Co-teachers: Malin Zimm, Brady Burroughs, Meike Schalk

Course administrator: Tess Hagfalk tessh@arch.kth.se

This course allows you to pursue an independent research project within Critical Studies in Architecture: Architecture and Gender. You will be supervised individually and in group.

You are expected to come to the course with a particular question or theme that you wish to explore further. You may also use the course as an opportunity to work with the formulation of a more extended research program and seeking funding strategies to make its realisation possible.

The course demands that you are able to drive your own research and writing process but will also expect and encourage participants to form working groups to support each other's work

Schedule (revised!):

100121	13-15 Introduction and presentations of project ideas
100408	13-15 Presentation of half-time / group tutorial
100430	13-15 Presentation of work-in-progress / group tutorial
100520	13-15 Presentation of final project

Half-time examination will be scheduled after the second session depending on individual progress. Dates for final examination of the projects will be discussed together with participants.

Participants should also follow the program and assignments from AD237V

Course objectives

The participants are trained to pursue and conclude an independent research project in architecture and gender applying critically reflective and creatively productive methods of exploration. After the course participants should have acquired a basic orientation in methods for pursuing a project of this kind, as well as experience and practical skills for this purpose.
